Miss Dorothy Miller.

We of the Tabula staff feel both proud and grateful as we dedicate our 1950 book to Miss Dorothy Miller.

We are proud to dedicate our book to a member of the faculty who is able to make her subject, French, become and remain a part of our lives. We are proud also to recognize Miss Miller as a play director who stimulates her casts to create real characters, "to act from the feet up." We are proud to salute a personality who puts the sparkle into the dances she creates for our operettas. In all of her activities Miss Miller develops an "esprit de corps" which is so important to any group.

We are grateful to Miss Miller for her interest and understanding. We are grateful for her encouragement and patience. We are grateful for her vivacity and "joie de vivre."

To you, Miss Miller!

Oak Park and River Forest High School

... At the Half Century

Words help us remember . . . bright sun on warm bricks . . . dark shadows against the light . . . shades at various levels . . . patterns of leafy branches . . . stone steps hollowed by many feet . . . the arched entrance . . . the clear outline of the building against the sky, waiting and touched with expectancy at the beginning of each day.

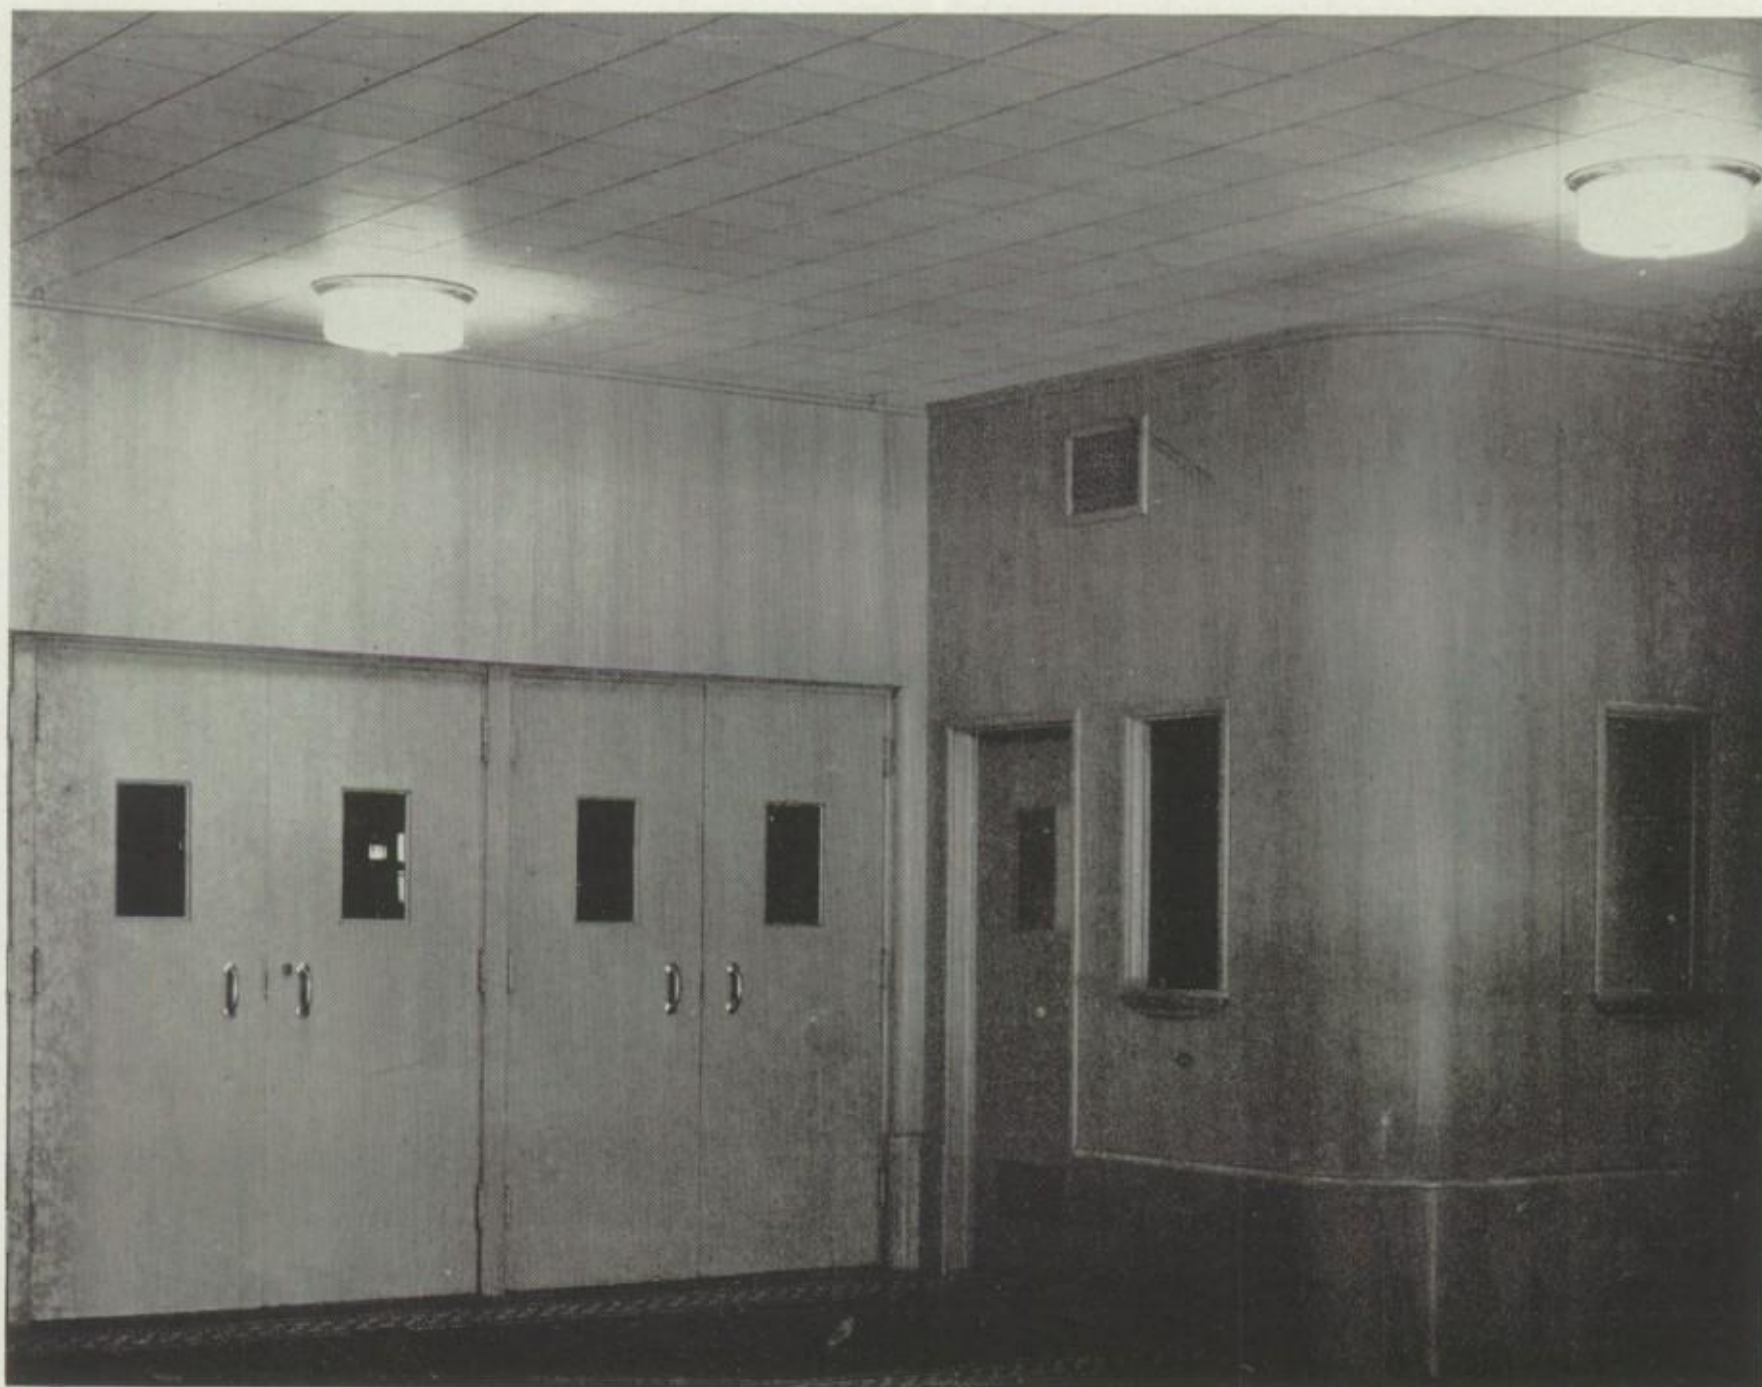

Words tell also of evenings . . .
the sharp outlines of bare winter branches . . . light streaming from windows . . . rows of silent cars
. . . and inside the mood of excitement and the curtain going up.

The '50 look in the interior of our school features veneered walls . . . student activities calendar . . . shining corridors . . . marble wall base . . . fluorescent lighting . . . recessed lockers . . . large showcases . . . acoustic ceilings . . . rubber-tiled floors . . . covered stairways . . . and blond woodwork.

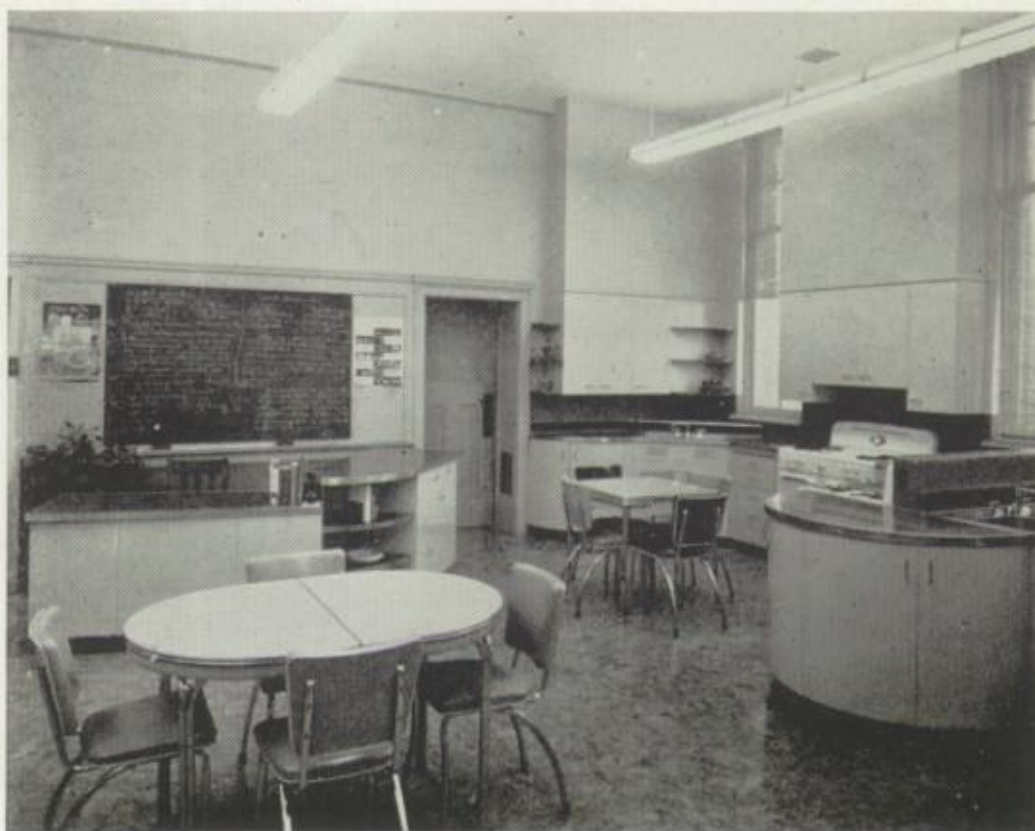

Light and space and beauty are everywhere in our school of the half century.

The familiar offices also have "the new look" with bright colors and modernistic furniture. The switch-board . . . Dr. Youngert's office . . . the teachers' work-room . . . conference rooms . . . the blueprint room—these suggest the remodeling done.

When we enter the kitchen of the Home Economics Department, we are again conscious of the beauty of the remodeling. Sun streaming through windows . . . gleaming sinks . . . pies from shining stoves . . . white refrigerators — these all suggest the '50 look.

The School Belongs to the Community

For the remodeling of the school, and for its continued excellence, we thank the Board of Education. Working for the good of the students and of the community, the members of our Board have always shown a real and intelligent interest in the best in education. They have concerned themselves with maintaining our scholastic standards; they have approved a strong extra-curricular program; and in the past few years they have devoted themselves to the improvement of the school plant. Many changes have been made to modernize our school, some of which are shown by the pictures on the preceding pages.

We are grateful to the Board for making our school a better place and for their many plans for future improvement.

Superintendent

Dr. Youngert in his office.

Our superintendent, Dr. Eugene Youngert, has cooperated fully with the Board of Education in the planning of our fine school plant and program. Ever since he came to Oak Park and River Forest High School in 1941, he has had ambitious plans for the school and has watched them realized as the years have gone by. To the students, Dr. Youngert is not only a fine educator, but a man whose friendliness and interest is evident in everything he does. The students will always remember his aspirations for our school with pride and gratitude.

The thanks of the student body go to Mr. Wilson for his efficient handling of the business and maintenance staffs. During the remodeling he has put into definite form the plans on which he has worked with Dr. Youngert and the Board.

Art

Both the beginner and the art major can find a wide range of creative activities in the Art Department. The Crafts classes are open to all who would like to design and produce usable objects by working in leather and plexiglass and by weaving on one of the many looms. For the students who desire work in drawing, design, and painting there are the introductory Art I and Art II classes.

The quality of the work of the Department is shown by the many recognitions which it has received in the National Scholastic Art Awards of the Carnegie Institute.

Commercial

Nearly all of the students who graduate from Oak Park and River Forest High School will, even if not actually engaged in business, have contact with the business world. Because of this, it is important that the school provide business training for those who want it.

Besides courses in Typing and Shorthand, those who are preparing for jobs in business take Office Practice and Secretarial Training. The Economics Classes study such topics as production, distribution, and consumption. Business Law deals with legal situations that commonly occur in business transactions.

The aims of our modern Home Economics Department are threefold. The first of these is to teach personality development by the study of types of clothing suitable to the individual personality, by the making of attractive clothes, and by emphasis upon good grooming. The second is to prepare girls for marriage by the study of boy and girl friendships, of child care, and of home nursing. The third aim is to train students in the essentials of nutrition, food buying, and food preparation.

English

The curriculum of the English Department provides opportunity for the study of reading, writing, and speaking. Courses in literature familiarize us with the best of English and American writing. Courses in Creative Writing, Expository Writing, Journalism, and Senior Composition teach us clear and logical expression.

History

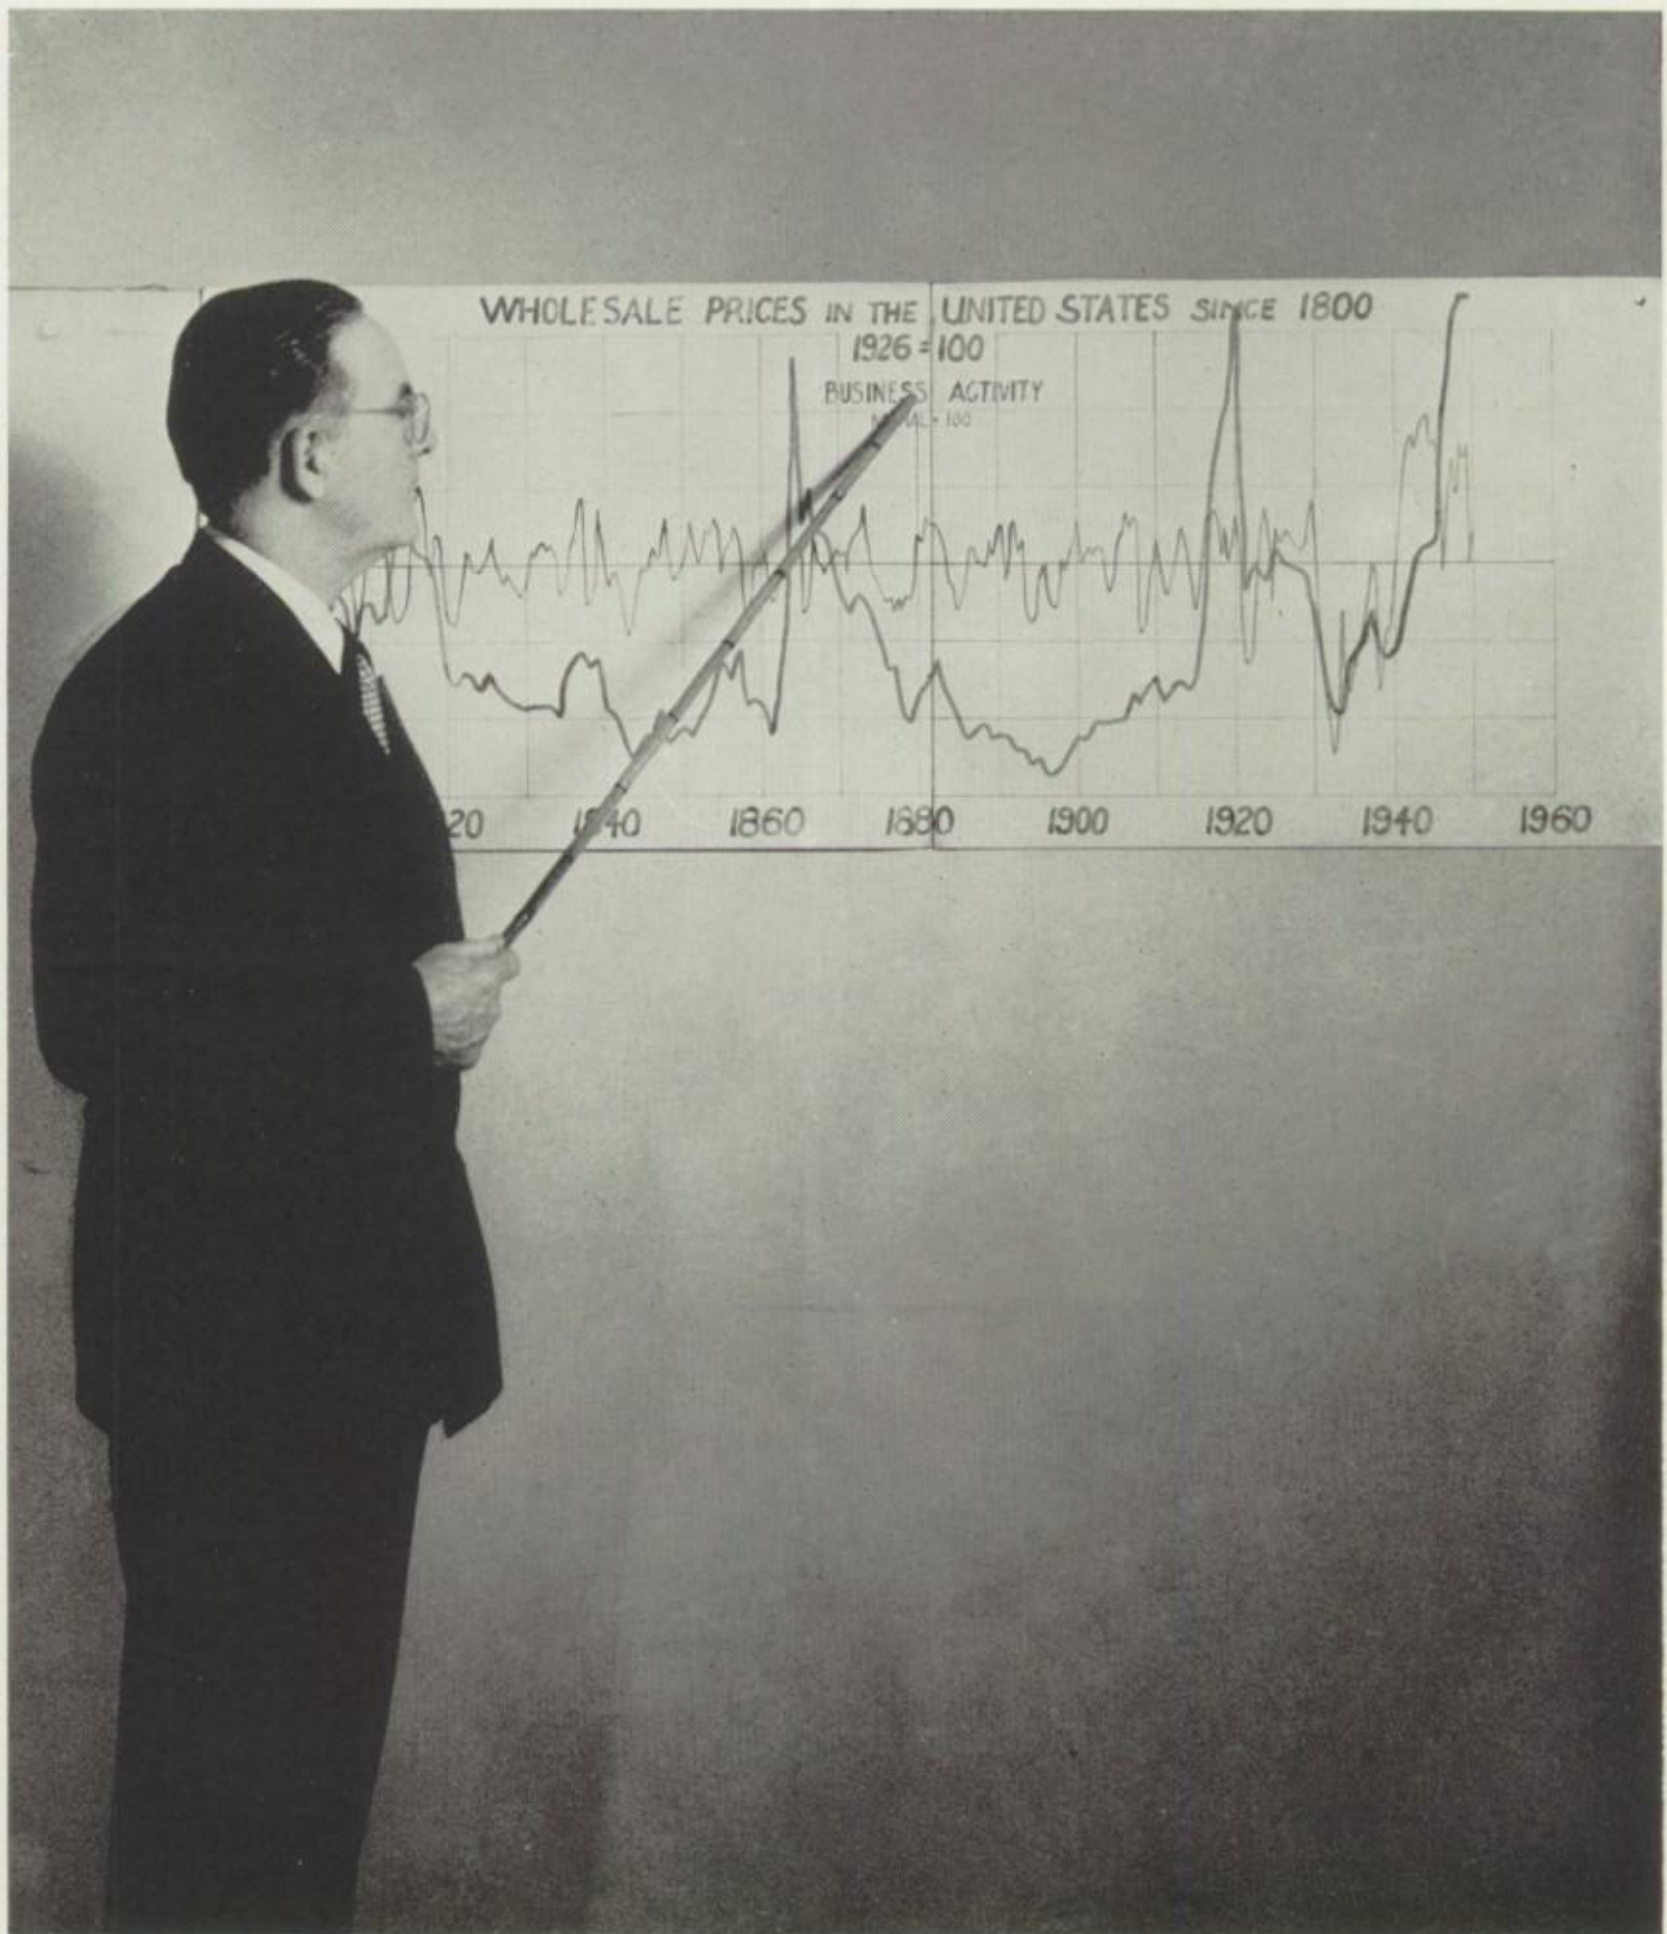

The History Department sets several goals for students. The Department does not want students to learn many facts merely for the sake of the facts themselves. Rather, history is intended to develop in students a critical and discriminating attitude. History can enable them to interpret and to comprehend current events. One other function is to teach about the people of other countries and thus encourage open-mindedness and an alertness to the problems of others.

Apart from the usual courses in European, World, and American History, the Department offers courses in Far Eastern History, Latin-American History, and Sociology. These fascinating courses are not often included in high school curricula.

Industrial Arts

Training in the Industrial Arts Department is training for life in a mechanical world. The philosophy of the Department states that since our world is becoming increasingly mechanical, it is practical for us to understand the nature of the things by which we are surrounded. Industrial Arts training is also vocational training. The curriculum includes courses in Machine Shop, Auto Shop, Woodworking, Mechanical Drawing, and Architectural Drawing.

Music

Armand Baker

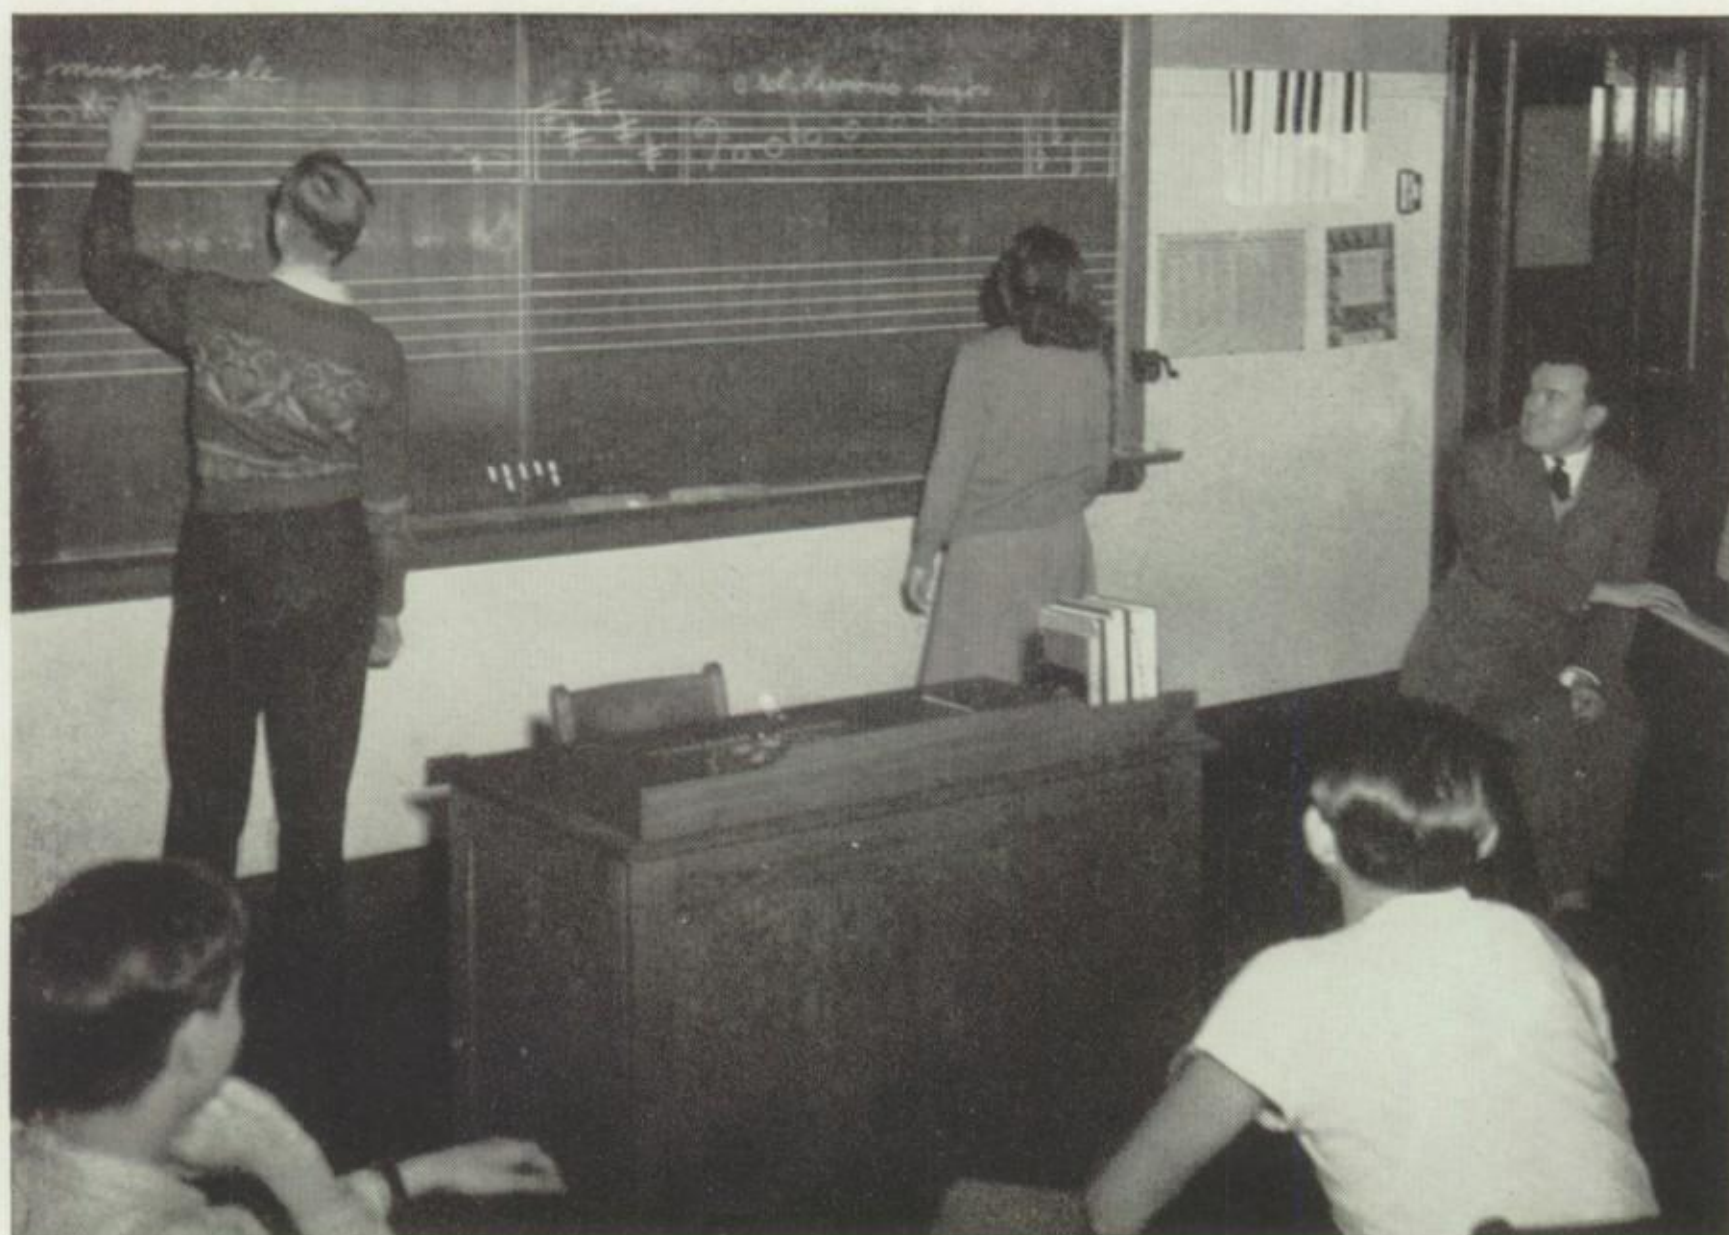

Morris Riebman Edna Ruth
Wood

The aims of the Music Department are these: to teach students the theory and structure of music; to improve skills in music; and to foster an appreciation of music. These three aims are carried out by the classes, the choral ensembles, and the instrumental groups.

In the Department, General Music teaches the fundamentals, Music History tells of the influence of the musical past upon the music of today, Music Literature is a study of composers and their work, and Harmony explains the keyboard harmony and composition.

The choral and instrumental divisions develop musical skills in group singing and playing.

Latin

The study of Latin gives us a better knowledge of our own language. The dependence of English upon Latin is made an important feature of the Department, and the need for a good vocabulary is constantly demonstrated. The work of Latin I and Latin II deals with basic forms, grammar, and vocabulary. In Latin III the "Aeneid," one of the world's great pieces of literature, is studied. "Cicero's Oration" complete the four years.

Outside of the classroom, fun is mixed with learning in the Latin clubs, the Roman Banquet, and the assemblies.

Analyzing is a big part of translation.

Modern Language

French, German, and Spanish, as taught at Oak Park and River Forest High school, involve much more than vocabulary, idioms, and grammar. Conversing in another tongue, reading about the life and temperament of other peoples, and singing their songs, all make for skill in the language and international-mindedness in the student. Because of their travels and studies in the countries whose languages they teach, our teachers are singularly well-equipped to convey to their students, not only the letter but also the spirit of the languages.

Students preparing for many vocations find courses to help them in Oak Park and River Forest High School's Mathematics Department. The Department prepares students for future specialization in mathematics; gives them a working knowledge of the techniques of mathematics needed not only in the physical sciences and in engineering, but in industry, business, and the social sciences; shows the workings of mathematics in nature and art; and trains the students in the methods of logical thinking.

Public Speaking

Public Speaking is an introductory course in the fundamentals of speech. Under the direction of Mr. Ramsay and Miss Lounsbury, the classes are trained to communicate ideas effectively by means of spoken words. Such transmitting is accomplished in conjunction with voice use and personality development. The outline of the course includes such divisions as choice, arrangement, and development of ideas, and the control of diction by the speaker. The result is not only a student who can speak clearly and effectively, but also one whose personality has received definite aid.

Students who have completed the course have the opportunity to make A-period homeroom announcements and thus receive further practice.

Library

The library is one of the busiest places in Oak Park and River Forest High School. Apart from the annual influx of Juniors in search of reference material for their Junior themes, students constantly come to the library to read for other courses.

The librarians help all the students. They instruct the Freshman English classes in the correct way of using the library. The library is an indispensable source of information.

These are the student assistants.

School Nurse

Bess Wilmarth

Mrs. Wilmarth's rooms are actually a small emergency hospital. Students go there for a variety of reasons ranging from a cinder in an eye to cuts and bruises. Apart from tending to the ills of the students in school, Mrs. Wilmarth calls those students who are absent and is always ready to give any others advice about matters pertaining to health.

Sight-Saving

In the Sight-Saving room students whose eyes need special care are provided with reading helps. The students go to the Sight-Saving room during study halls. Various devices in the room reduce eye strain and make reading easier. Among those devices are adjustable desks, a dictionary with extremely large print, and a machine which plays recordings of books.

Business Staff

The business staff is composed of Miss Atkinson, the school accountant, Miss Engel, the registrar, Mrs. Diekelman, the bookstore manager, and the secretaries. These people handle the complicated business of the school, make purchases for all departments, and do the clerical work which is so necessary to an organization of this size.

Maintenance Staff

The importance of the maintenance staff to the proper functioning of the school can hardly be overemphasized. There are thirty-five workers on the maintenance staff. Of these, seven are women. Because much of the work of cleaning the school is done at night, students rarely, if ever, see many of the people on the staff.

Apart from the janitors, there are five men whose work is especially important to the school. The first of these is Mr. Brown, the school electrician. Although the electrical work during the recent remodeling was done by a contractor, Mr. Brown acted as an adviser. Another important figure in maintenance is the engineer, Mr. Kappler. Assisted by three firemen, Mr. Kappler has charge of the machinery in the basement. Mr. Fullerton and Mr. Lockhart are the school's carpenters. They aided in the remodeling by advising the contractors and by constructing the cupboards used in the offices. The last of the five men who keep the physical plant of the school in running order is Mr. Eck, head custodian.

Cafeteria

The cafeteria, a non-profit business operated by the school, is under the management of our dietitian, Miss Dorothy Grandy, who arranges the menus and directs the preparation of the food. Although some students eat their noon meals at home, about 2,000 are served each school day in the lunchroom. In addition to the preparation and serving of the lunches, the cafeteria staff also provides club refreshments.

All will be gone by 1:02.

Because of the large part that visual education plays in many of our classes, the Projection Staff is important. Under the supervision of Mr. Park, this group of boys operates the projection machines in Room 42 and Room 235. They devote much of their time to the work, showing films after school hours as well as during the day.

The boys who serve on the Projection Staff are chosen during either their Freshman or Sophomore year. During the underclass years they receive training in the operation and repair of the projection machines. They are chosen then in order that they have the time necessary to obtain a credit for their work.

At the present time there are 32 boys on the staff.

This year Safety Council, under Mr. Storey's able supervision, adopted a new constitution. The Council is bigger than ever, and is doing a fine job to promote safety in and around our school.

The group is divided up into different committees on halls, driving, bicycles, traffic signs, and publicity. The committees enforce the rules, and democratically try the offenders. Penalties are given for any violation of the safety rules. The students work hard to make our school safe.

Student Council

Our Student Council is the top body of Student Government. It is made up of boys and girls elected by the respective classes. There are twelve Seniors, ten Juniors, eight Sophomores, and eight Freshmen.

With Dr. Youngert as faculty adviser, Student Council has been a very valuable link between the administration and the students, and a frequent sponsor of many school projects.

Smoking Council

This year's Smoking Council was made up of eight Senior boys and four Junior boys. These members were elected by the upper-class boys at the beginning of the year.

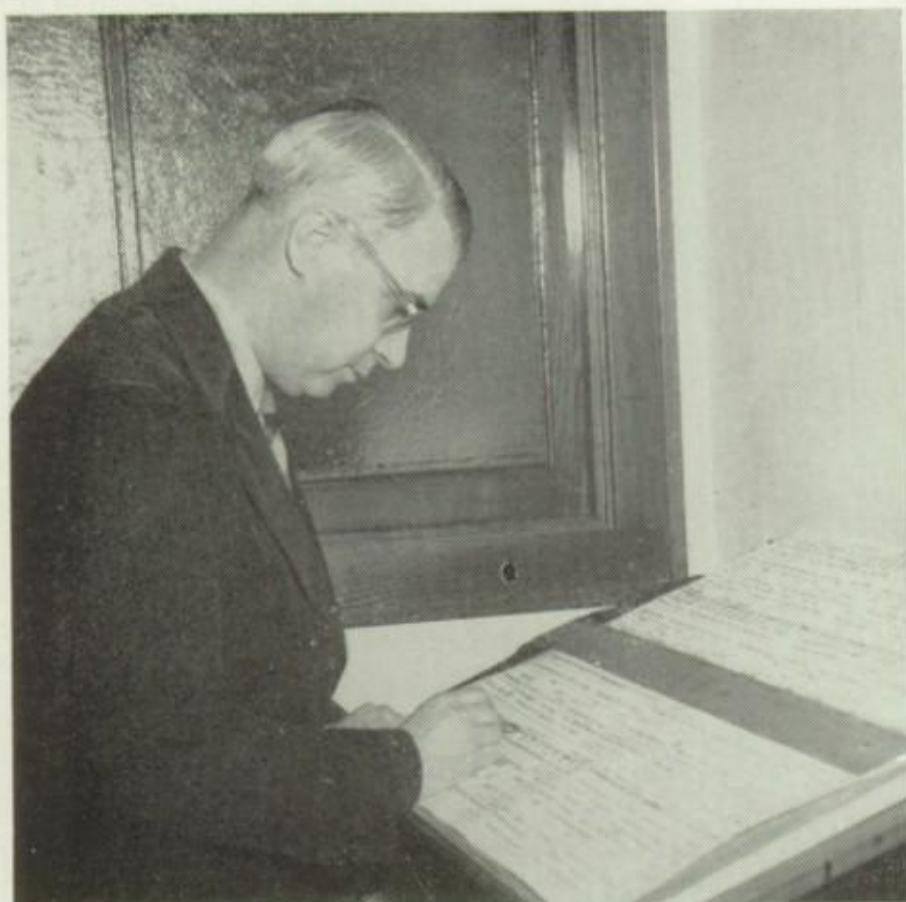

Smoking Council enforces the school's smoking regulations and judges offenders of the rules by a trial.

SENIORS

Senior Deans

Mr. Fritzemeier

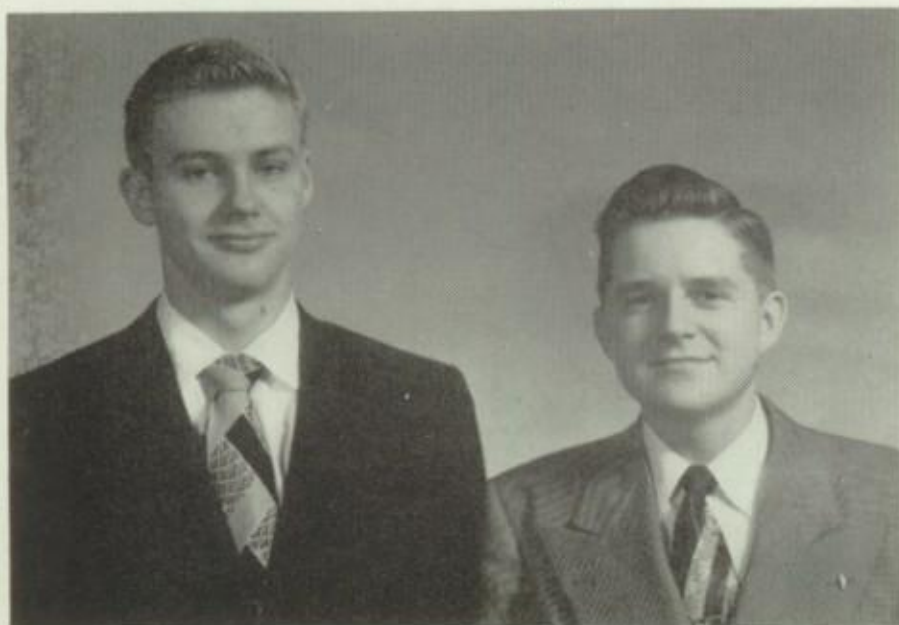

Miss Horner

The Senior Deans, Miss Ruth Horner and Mr. L. H. Fritzemeier, have given valuable assistance in helping Seniors consider their plans for the future. The deans have helped these prospective graduates to evaluate their individual talents and abilities and have advised them about appropriate colleges and suitable fields of work.

The Commencement Speakers, who are chosen by the faculty, are students whose superior leadership and fine scholastic records have won them recognition. Richard Wescott and Bob Luce spoke at the January Commencement, while Rosemary Stuebe, Lois Grosser, John Wait, and Thomas R. Tucker received this honor in June.

Senior Council

Members of Senior Council include the elected class officers and one chosen representative from each home room. This group governs Senior activities, ushers at mid-year Commencement, and plans the annual Class Day program. Assisted by the Senior deans, it makes decisions solely concerning the Senior Class. Of its fourteen members this year, only one is a girl.

"Life with Father"

This year's Girls' Club Show was a great success under the able direction of Miss Dorothy Miller. The show's nineteenth century atmosphere must be attributed to the hard working committees and their faculty advisers. Miss Geller and Mary Lu Franz worked with the costumes. Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wagus, John Tirrell, and Marjorie Lightfoot gathered together the properties of the show. Makeup was handled by Mr. Riebman and Karyl Gesmer.

"She Stoops to Conquer"

On May 5 and 6, the Senior Class presented "She Stoops to Conquer." This immortal farce by Oliver Goldsmith was chosen by Mr. Cooke just after it had finished a very successful revival on Broadway. However, the play has been changed enough by Mr. Cooke to cause some faculty members to remark that the program should read that the play was written by Goldsmith and Cooke. The main changes were made to add more characters and to give comic relief.

Much work was done in the production of the show. New scenery was used for the Hardcastle home, and old scenery was rejuvenated for the rest of the scenes. The tavern of the Three Jolly Pigeons was built on a large moving platform, which took a great deal of work to make. All together the stage and scene painting crews did a professional job.

Behind

the

Is . . .

Being behind the scenes is almost as much fun as being in front of the foot-lights. Properties and costume committees have a regular scavenger hunt the entire time and often turn up with anything from a cauldron to a snuff box. Scene construction and painting are done with much gaiety mixed with hard work. Members of the Lights and Stage Crews are the favored few who are familiar with the mysterious rafters above the stage and auditorium. Ticket selling, publicity, and make-up are perhaps more monotonous, but still the feeling of being part of a show lends a charm to all jobs.

Literary Tabula . . .

Literary Tabula is a magazine which contains stories, poems, and essays written by the students. Three staffs work to edit the magazine which comes out twice yearly, in December and in May. The Freshman staff is under the direction of Miss Wurtzbach, and the Sophomore staff is supervised by Miss Morgan. These two staffs read all the material submitted by their respective classes. They then turn their choices over to the Junior-Senior staff which edits the contributions, and plans the layout of the magazine. Miss Burt and Mr. Hohn are the faculty advisers for the Junior-Senior staff.

Dance Demonstration . . .

The Physical Education Department presents two demonstrations each year.

The Dance Demonstration showed examples of square, folk, and modern dancing. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of "Carmen" by the after-school dance group.

The Gym Demonstration showed the type of work done by the students in their gym classes. Besides the dancing and rhythmical exercises which are presented each year, several other activities were included. Both tumbling and marching were given for the first time in several years. Added to the program, also, were the demonstration of tennis and badminton by the boys, and the volleyball game in which both boys and girls participated.

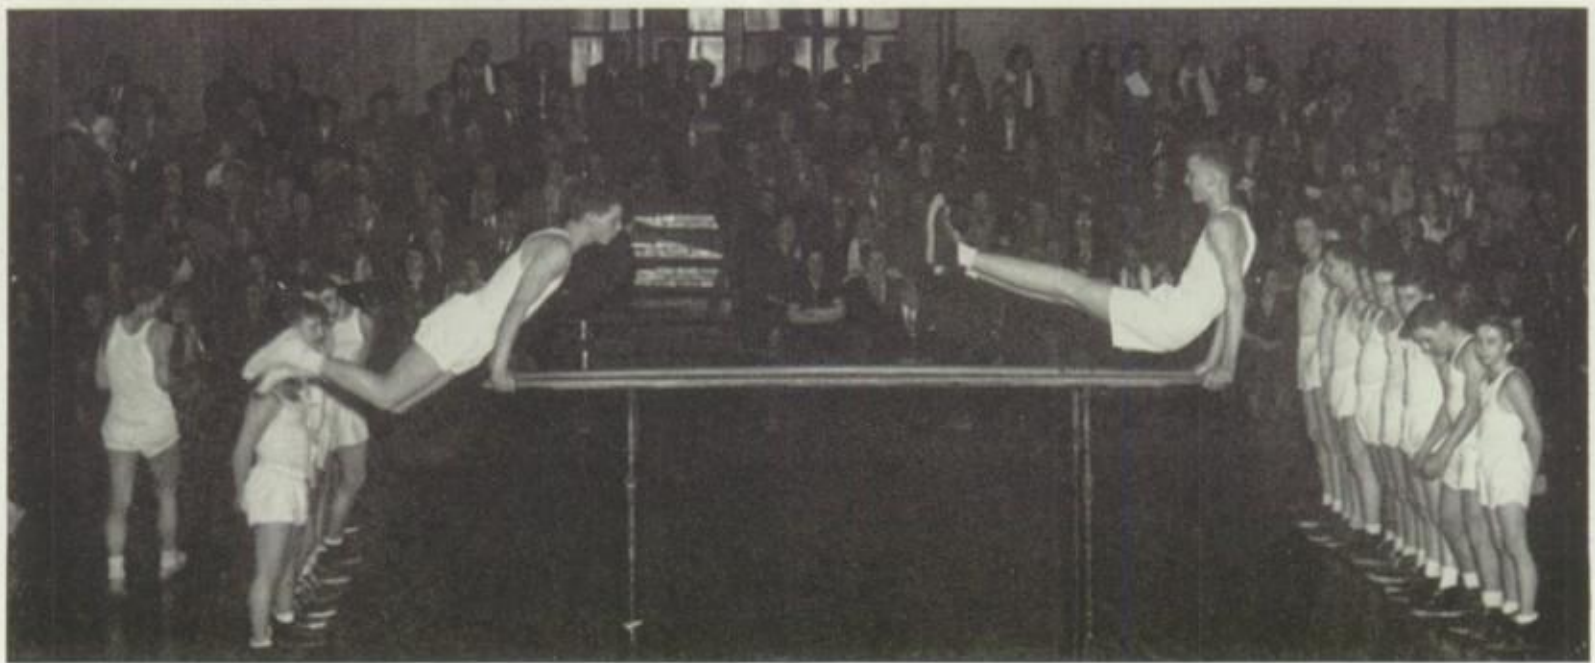

Lois Green and Reba Wright pose.

How a Freshie Feels About Fresh

By Tom Hall

As freshmen, the only way to know what it's like to be a freshman is to be a freshman. This is the only way to know what it's like to be a freshman.

It's a feeling of being a freshman. It's a feeling of being a freshman.

Clubs

Are Important

The word club at Oak Park and River Forest High School stands for the largest extra-curricular program in the school, open to all students.

Club may stand for one of the language clubs—Latin, French, Spanish, and German—through which students obtain a better knowledge of foreign countries. The parliamentarian defines the meaningful word club as one of the five debating clubs: Burke, Forum, Gavel, Lincoln, and Town-meeting. Then too, future actors and actresses demonstrate their dramatic ability in Drama Club, Footlights, and Masqueraders. For those who prefer to delve into science, Biology, Chemistry, and Freshman Science Clubs offer a variety of activities. The music-minded find their club in Freshman-Sophomore or Junior-Senior Music Clubs. Boys' and Girls' Camera Clubs draw their membership from the camera fans. Talented doodlers belong to Art Club, and aspiring teachers learn about their interests in Future Teachers of America. History Club offers to history enthusiasts chances for discussion of past and current events; girls interested in cooking and sewing join Home Economics Club; Newton Club draws the mathematically minded. Young writers challenge Shakespeare in Story Club; radio bugs pursue their interests in Radio Club; and fans of the out-of-doors join Sportsmen's Club. Lectures and fellowship are enjoyed by members of Hi-Y. Pep Club is the newly formed cheering organization. All the girls in school are members of Girls' Club, a service club.

There you are; that's what the four-letter word club stands for in our school.

Newly formed this year, Pep Club was organized for the purpose of promoting better cheering at sports events. Mr. Soliday helped to organize the club, and Mr. Foster later took over its sponsorship.

The Fathers' Club donated orange sweat shirts decorated with a blue Huskie and a blue Oak Park. Besides forming a colorful spectacle in the stands and doing a great deal of cheering themselves, the members succeeded in stimulating cheering from other Doopers.

Varsity Football

This year's Varsity football team had a fair season, winning a total of four games and losing four games. The Huskies finished in third place in Suburban League competition, winning three games and losing three games. They outscored their opponents by a total of 137 points to 122 points.

Bob Anderson and Jim Armstrong, co-captains, were the main support in the line along with Bill Wilson, the center. Tom Ebert, the tall end, scored his share of the touchdowns for the team.

In the backfield, Martin and Ogle each tallied for four touchdowns to lead in the scoring column. Jim Nikitas scored the extra points for Oak Park.

The 1949 soccer team had a successful season, winning eleven, tying one, and losing three. The team was spearheaded by Iverson, the captain, and Westcott, both of whom were selected for the All-State team, and Nelson, McElroy, and White, who are members of the All-Suburban team.

The team had a bad start, losing the first two games and tying the next. From that time on, however, it won every game except the last, which was against Morton.

This year marked the return of soccer to the athletic field. Many students saw the Woodsmen in an exhibition of soccer before a Varsity football game during the fall.

Since many of this year's team were Juniors, we should have a strong team next year too.

Berliner boots it.

Cross-Country

The cross-country team had a successful season. The team won six and lost two, placing second in the Suburban League meet and third in the district meet. Captain Bob Stuker was put out by a sprained ankle about midseason, but he was undefeated in all five of his starts. Co-captain Jim Pitts was dependable throughout the season. Other able runners were Creek, DeMeritt, Richard, and Liesenfelt.

The boys practice and have their meets at Thatcher's Woods, where a two-mile course has been set up. The team having the lowest score wins. Thus the first man in gets the lowest number, the second man the next, and so on.

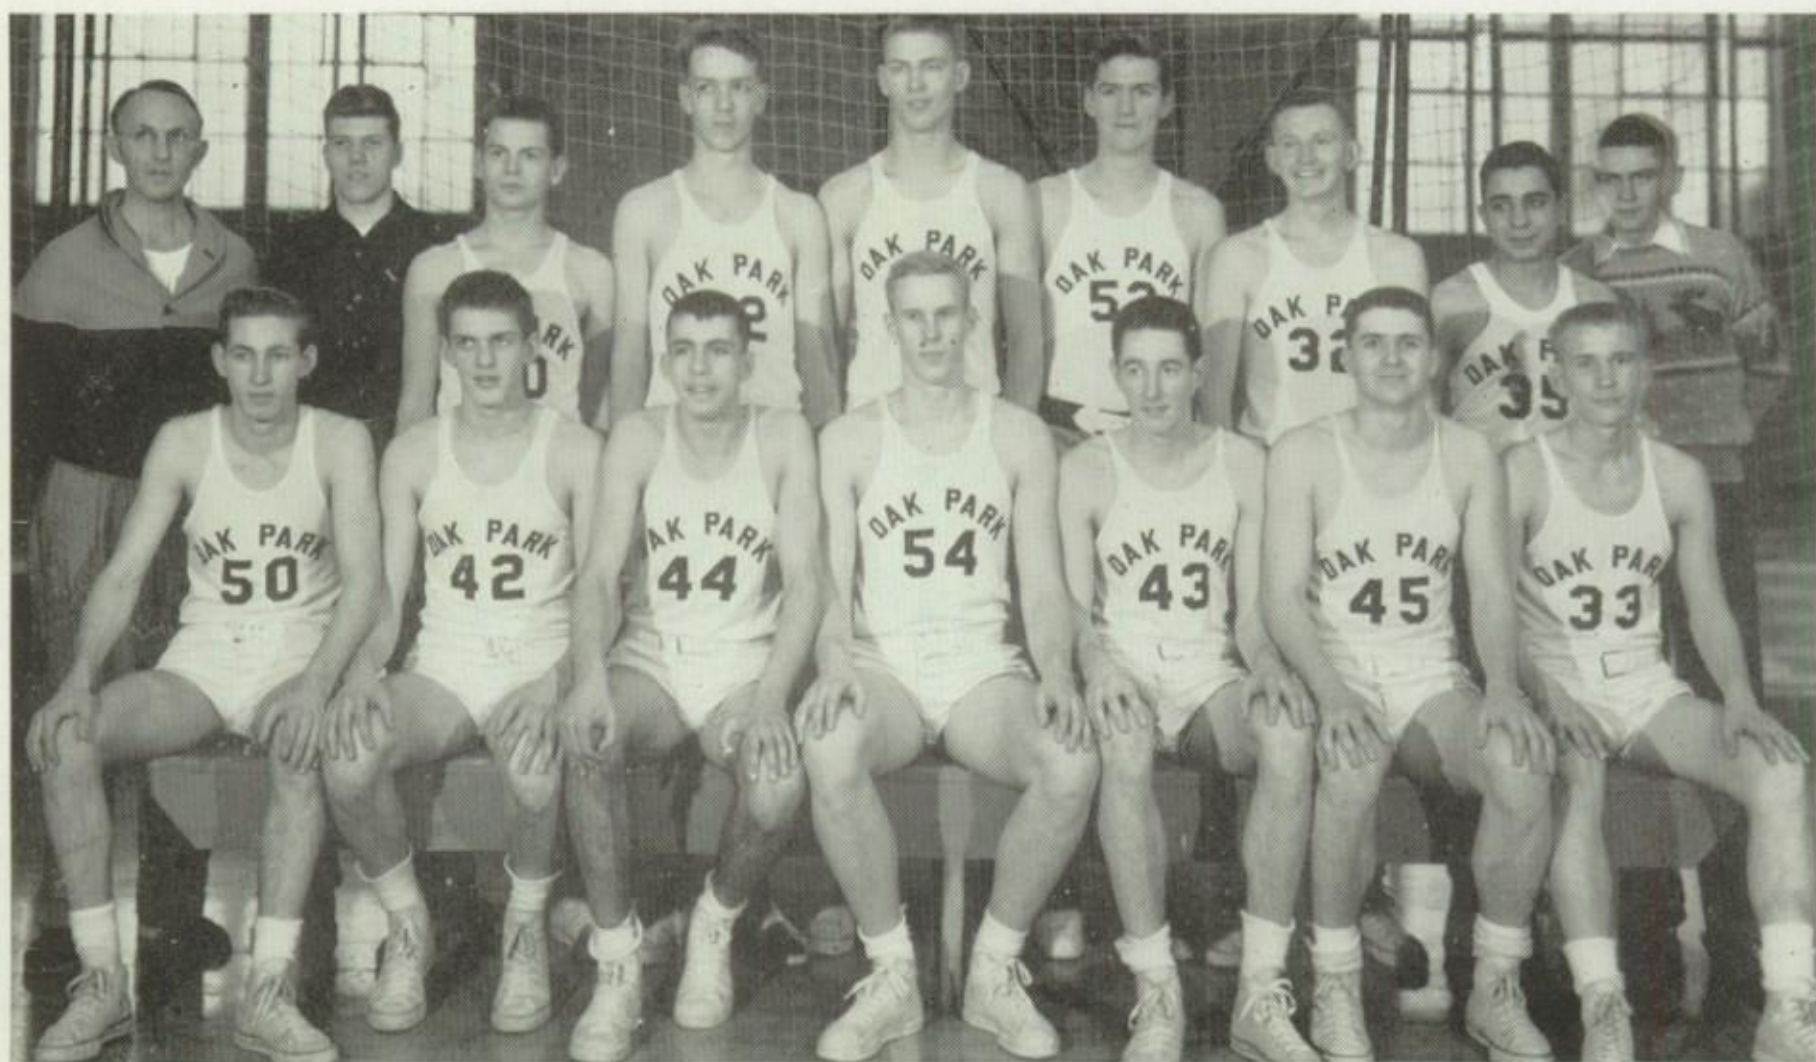

Though this year was only the second season for cross-country at Oak Park, 70 boys joined the team. Cross-country has become a major fall sport.

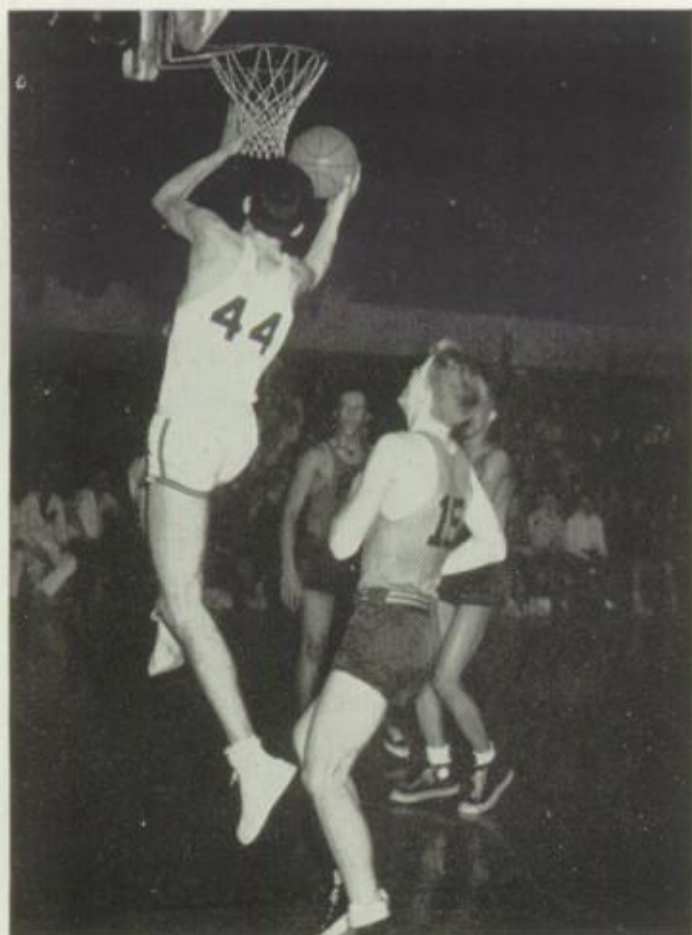

Dolan and Evans try to break the record.

Varsity Basketball

The Varsity team finished the season in third place. They won a total of seven games and lost five games.

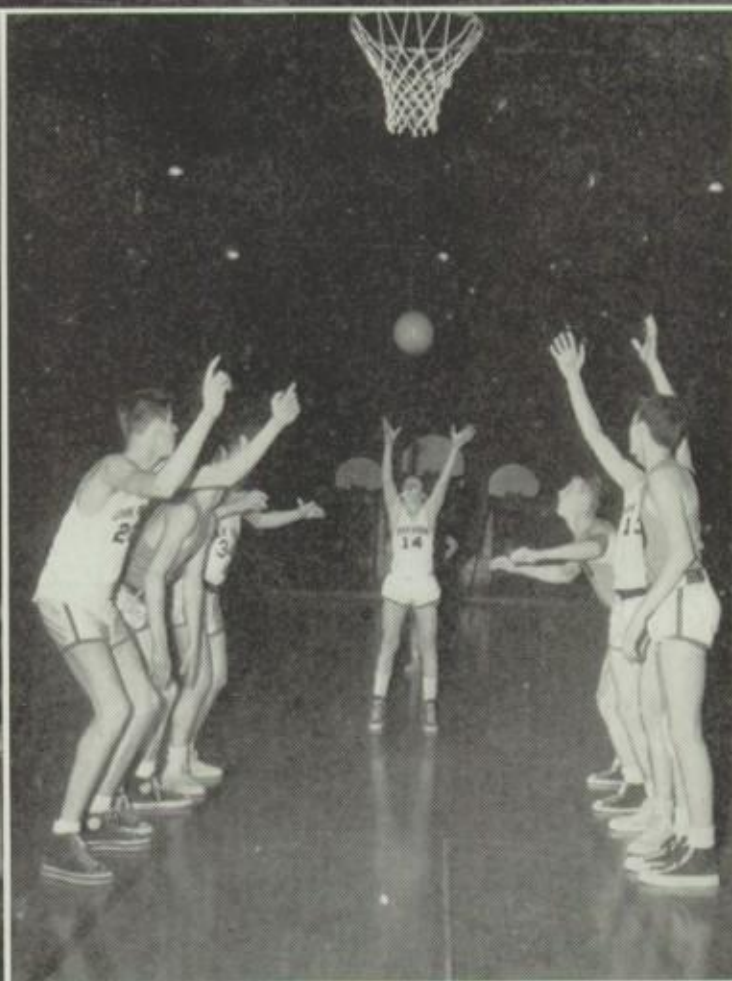

Willie Warden, co-captain of the team with Tom Stachnik, was named as one of the forwards on the Suburban League team. "Wee Willie" also finished the season one point out of first place in the League in individual scoring.

Ron Huseeth, Oak Park's center, received a berth on the second string of the Suburban team. Jim Armstrong, the tall center, and John Walsh, our ball-handling guard, received honorable mention on this team.

Varsity Track

The track team got off to a good start, showing strength especially in the mile, the hurdles, the 440, and the half-mile. Stuker and Ogle are better than ever.

Each year we have a meet with some outstanding team from out of town, and this time we entertained Froebel High School of Gary, Indiana, which we beat easily.

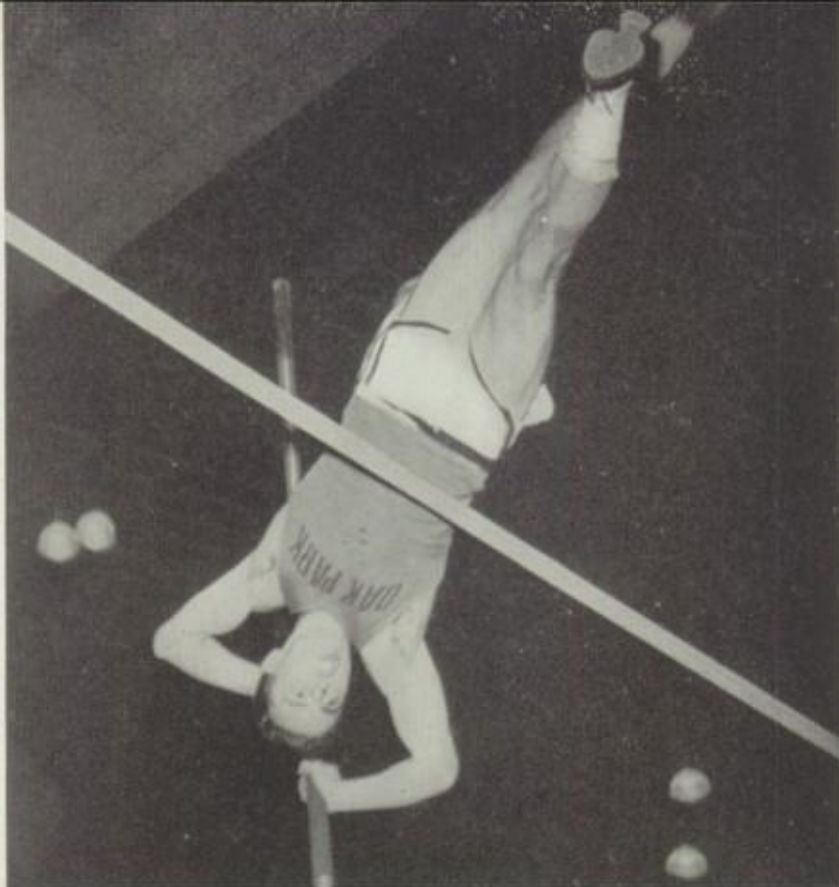

In a meet with Evanston, co-captain Ogle tied the fieldhouse record for the 440 of 52 seconds.

Chuck Novak, the other captain, spent most of the indoor season nursing a pulled muscle, but he was ready for the outdoor meets and will probably be paying a visit to Champaign for the State Meet.

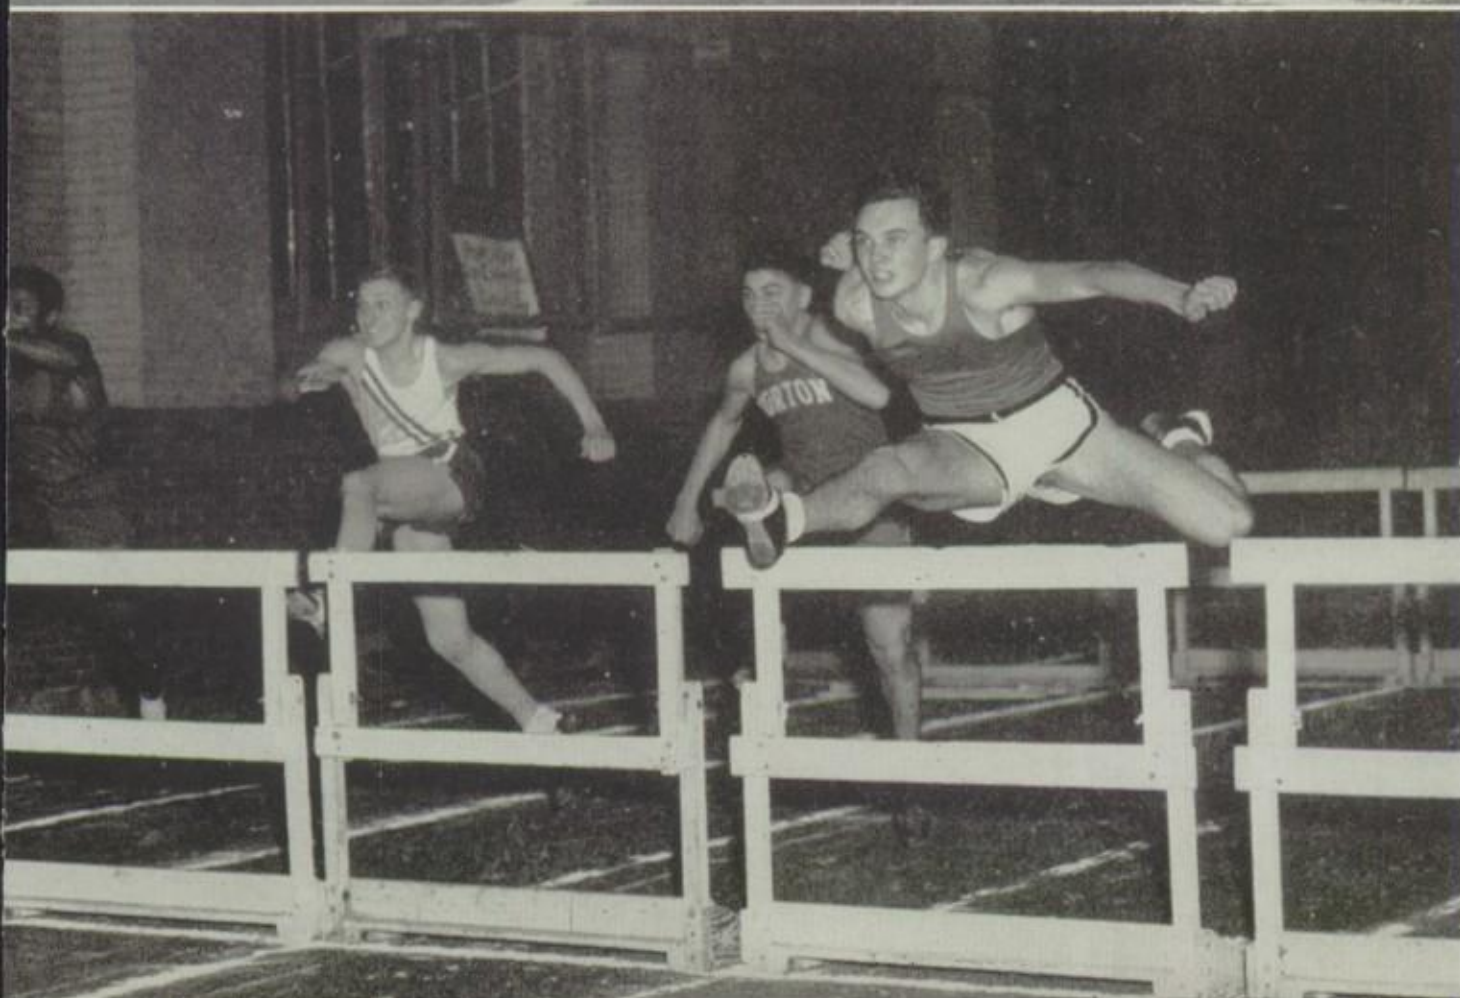

BACK ROW—Krbec, Neiman, Prina, Frymark, Haberichter, Shorney, Bone, Traut, Sittnick, Baren, Goodman, Seed, Wright, Liesenfelt, Dolan, Beers. Swimming

This year's tankmen finished the season in fifth place in Suburban League competition. George Shorney, the captain of the team, was this year's outstanding freestyler. George Gfroerer held his own in the backstroke competition. Charles Douglas, although he did not finish out the season, took all the honors in the breaststroke. Bill Williams, a Fresh-Soph diver of outstanding ability, won first place in Suburban League diving and has a good chance at the state championship next year.

Baseball

As it looks now, the baseball team may have a good season. There are many returning lettermen from last year's squad and also many new prospects.

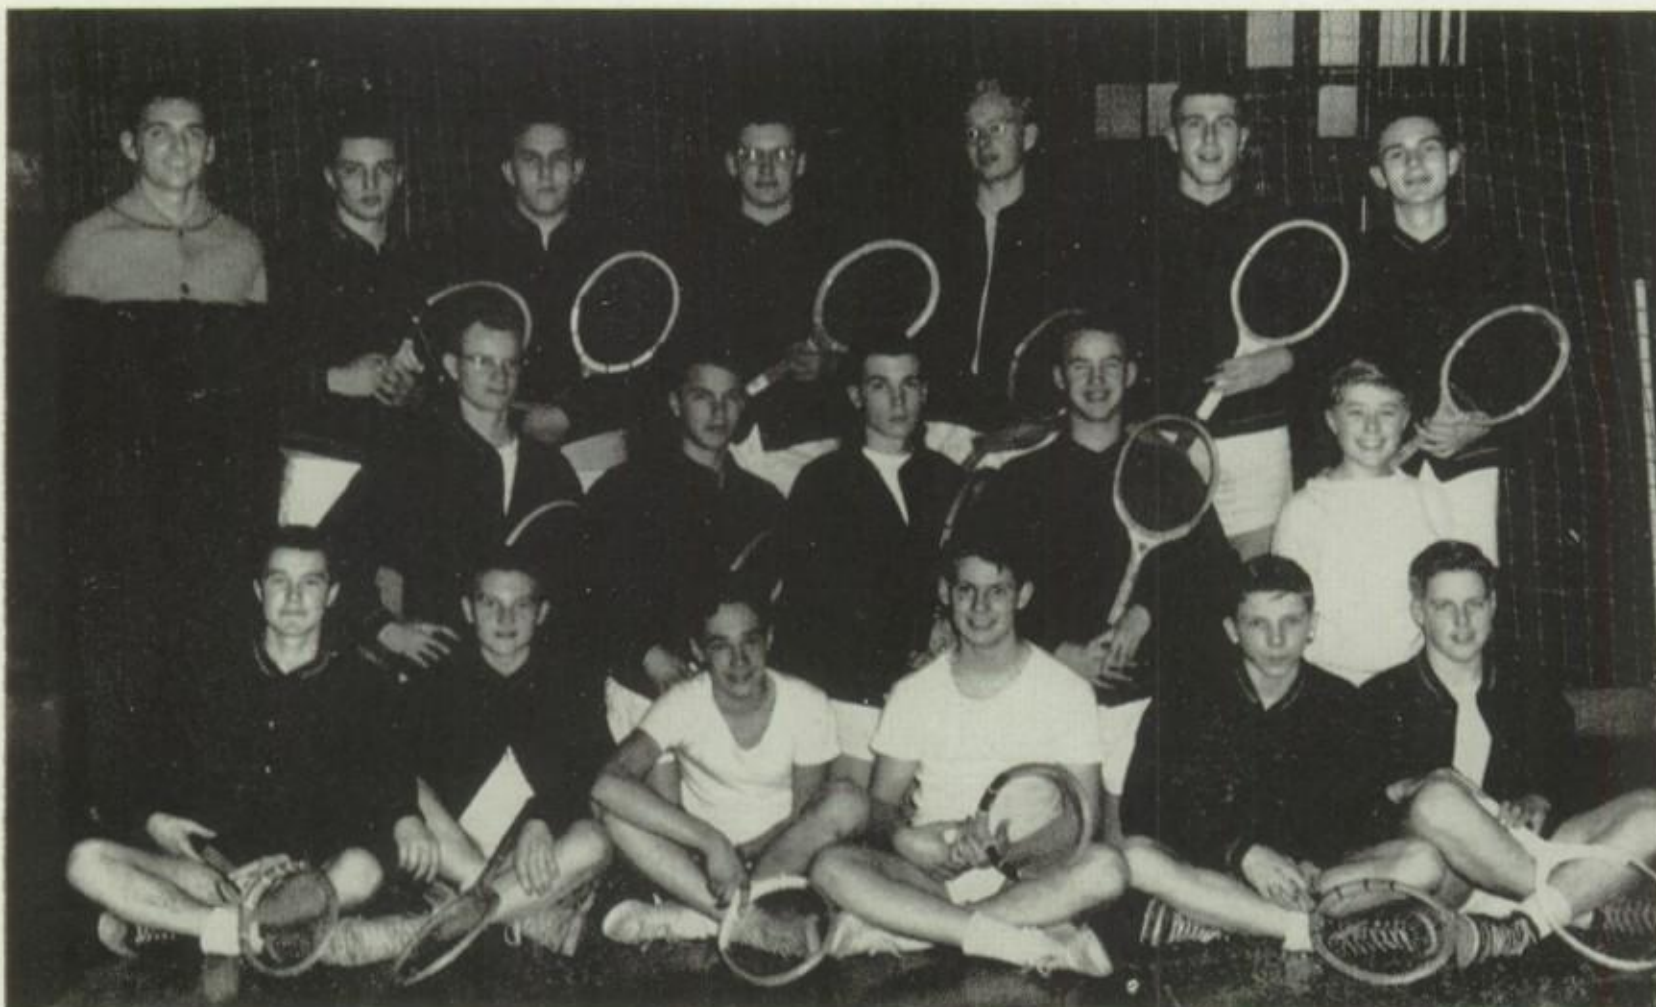

A team built around Bill Wilson, catcher, Sam Bedrosian, pitcher and Tom Tucker or John Walsh at first base, should do well.

The relay team at work.

Tennis

The tennis team seems to be in good form. William Andersen, a returning letterman, is the number one singles man. Alan Preucil, a Sophomore, is shaping up in the number two position. Russ Haidle, a Junior, will hold the number three spot on the team. George Woods and Jack Duncombe, both Juniors, form a sparkling doubles combination. With the combined efforts of these boys we have a chance at the Suburban League championship, or even the state championship.

Underclass Football Season

The Freshman football team was the outstanding underclass football team. It was the only Oak Park team to win the Suburban League championship and to finish the season with a perfect record of seven wins and no losses. The Freshmen had an amazing total of 228 points in comparison to their opponents' 57 points. Ron Frazer was the high scorer with 65, and Murphy was a close second with 63. Pascente was next with 42 points. The undefeated Freshmen chose Ron Frazer, fullback, and Chuck Joslin, guard, as their co-captains. The team is to be congratulated on the fine season and the Suburban League championship.

The Sophomores were not as successful as the Freshmen. They won three games and lost four. After losing to La Grange, they beat Highland Park. Then they came back to three successive losses to New Trier, Waukegan, and Evanston. After a two-week rest period, they defeated Morton and Proviso, and thus tied for third place in the Suburban League. The Sophs elected George Sargeant, a tackle, as their captain.

The Junior Varsity team, led by their captain, Art Scherer, won four games, lost two, and tied one. Tom Tucker, the big end, was the high scorer on the J. V. team with a total of twenty-two points. Little Eddie McGreevy sparked the team with his brilliant passing.

It looks as if Oak Park will have a good Varsity team next year.

Underclass Basketball

The 1949-50 basketball season was a success for our underclass cagers. The J. V.'s won eleven games and shared with Morton the championship of the Suburban League. They were led by co-captains, Clyde Schoenneman and Ross Ellis. Ellis was high-point man with a total of 97; Jim Tallant and Stan Chernau were next in line. The agile ball-handling of Bob Robbins and Dick Buescher sparked the team to many victories. Ward Ellis and Tom Ebert accounted for a bumper crop of points during the few games they played with the team.

The Sophomores were undisputed League champions, winning nine and losing three in League competition. The Sophs were captained by Chuck Mead, who managed to tally 178 points for top honors in that department. Jim Duncan, 6'5" center, scored 158 points for the season, and Dick Kolian scored 133. The other team mainstays were Dave Eifrig, Stu Smeltzly, Jim Sellergren, and Chuck Schaefer.

The Freshmen took third place in League standings with nine wins and five losses. The Freshman captains were Jere Kinnan and Jim DeVine. High-point man, Ron Fraser, accumulated 169 for the season. Other valuable men were Charles Lehwald, Johnny Reno, and Jim Turner.

This year's Fresh-Soph track team should be one of our best. Many promising Freshmen have joined the team, and several dependable Sophomores are back. We have especially good sprinters and quarter-milers.

Intramural sports hold an important place in the after-school athletic program of Oak Park and River Forest High School. Many of the boys who are not able to compete in major sports get an opportunity to display their talents in the intramural sports program.

The intramural teams are made up of the boys from the different gym periods, or in some cases, there are individual events in which they try for honors. Intramural shields are given as awards to the intramural winners.

Some of the coaches make up their teams at least partly from the intramural sports winners.

Among the sports included in this program are basketball, swimming, tennis, water polo, badminton, golf, freethrow, and track.

Coach Scott is in charge of this program.

Monogram Club

Monogram Club is an organization of all the boys who have earned major monograms.

They run the refreshment stand at the basketball games and usher at the Gym Demonstration.

Cheerleaders

What would a game be like without seven "rahs" and a "yeah, team"? And how forceful would seven "rahs" be without cheerleaders?

Our cheerleaders were effective this year in their new uniforms.

Girls' Sports . . .

. . . Through the Year

Autumn

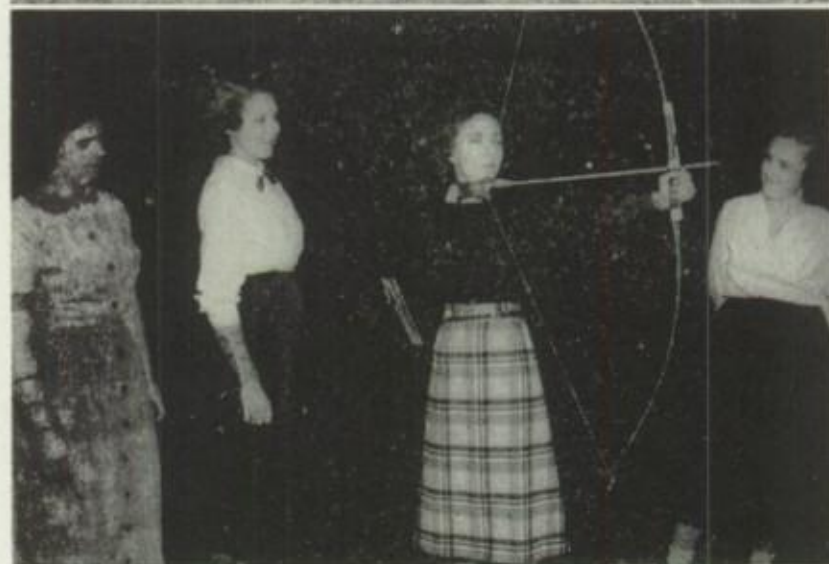

Hockey

Field hockey develops cooperation and provides a fine opportunity for outdoor exercise. The highlight of the season is the inter-class tournament, which determines a winner by elimination.

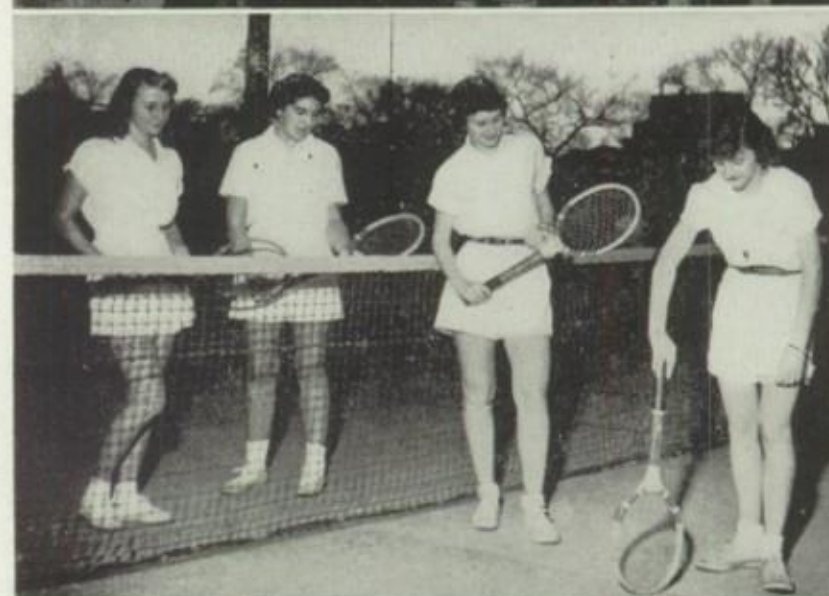

Archery

Archery, primarily an after-school sport, has been brought also to the gym classes during the last two years. Girls learn how to handle equipment and develop their individual target techniques.

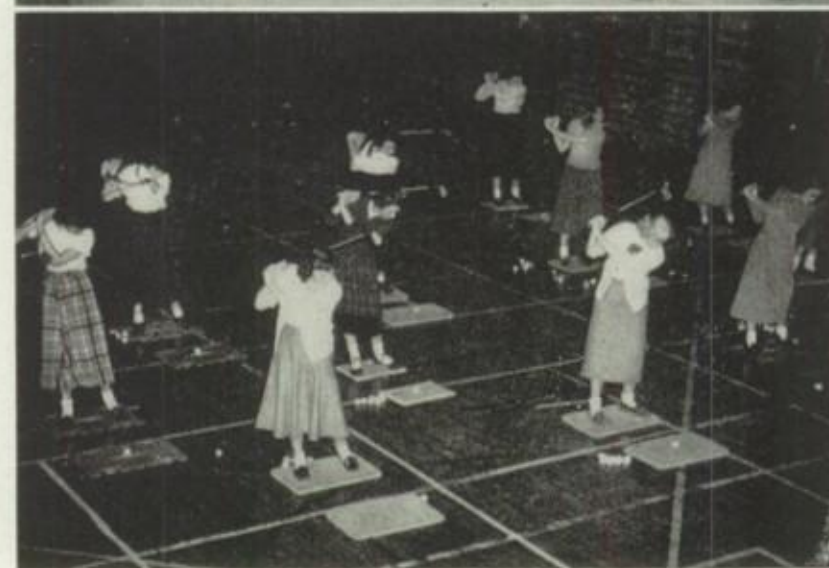

Tennis

Those interested in tennis may participate in this sport both in the spring and the fall. They are divided into beginning and advanced groups, both of which offer good training and much enjoyment.

Golf

Golf is a comparatively new sport, which is offered only after school. Strokes are often practiced indoors on mats. The instructions given to the players help them to get more pleasure from their game.

Early Winter

Dance

Classes in modern and folk dance spend their time during this quarter preparing for the demonstration given in combination with the after-school group. Students in the classes develop grace and poise.

Basketball

The girls who are interested in basketball meet on different nights according to their year in school. They practice playing techniques and choose a team to play in the tournament. Juniors won this year.

Bowling

Bowling is offered in the second and third quarters. The bowlers compete at the end of the season in an elimination tournament. Awards are given to the winner and the high-scorer of the year.

Badminton

Badminton has recently become a part of both the boys' and girls' Physical Education Departments. Girls may go out for it only after school. They learn how to score correctly and play with partners.

Late Winter

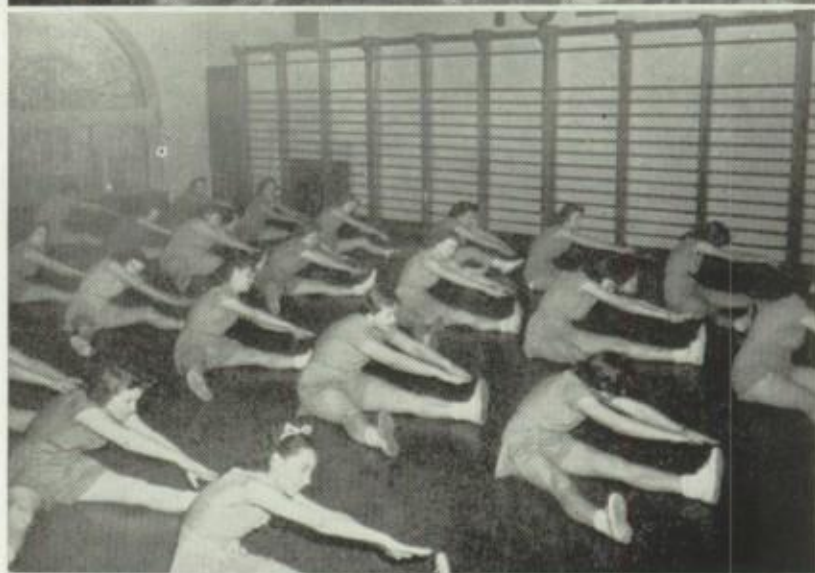

Red Cross Swimming

Included in the Red Cross swimming classes are the intermediate, the swimmer, and the life-saving tests. The test for life-saving is given special attention, including the complete mastery of artificial respiration.

Rhythmical Exercises

The rhythmical exercise classes work on the same exercises as the posture groups. Their presentation at the Gym Demonstration is a performance of precision and well-developed coordination.

Volleyball

Volleyball enthusiasts meet in accordance with their year in school. They develop playing abilities as they prepare for the interclass tournament, which this year was won by the Seniors.

Marching

Marching, which was a part of the Annual Gym Demonstration a few years ago, again was added to the program this year. The classes marched to music and worked out interesting and intricate figures.

Spring

Posture

Posture classes are offered to those who wish to correct posture faults. Exercises for round shoulders, for poor body balance, and even for flat feet are included in those that are practiced.

Baseball

Baseball, foremost among the outdoor sports in spring, is offered in classes and after school. After the players have practiced together, a tournament is played by teams that are chosen by the after-school groups.

Speedball

Girls in speedball classes play on the same size field and with many of the same rules as those in hockey classes do. They learn how to kick, pass, and dribble the ball properly before they play in actual games.

Swimming

Students usually plan to enroll in swimming classes during one of the gym quarters. Beginners are taught the fundamentals, and others may take synchronized or more advanced classes when they are offered.

Student Leadership Is Encouraged

The long and short of it.

"Point!"

The leaders' class is a new experiment, which may become an established part of the Girls' Physical Education Department. It is a special gym class, which meets third period. Girls who have an interest in physical education work are trained to instruct their fellow classmates in sport activities. They learn rules for officiating in different types of sports and are then assigned to assist the gym teachers. They all wear white uniforms and earn leaders' emblems after assisting for a certain number of hours.

In the fall they specialized in hockey and won the interclass tournament. The following quarter they had basketball and volleyball. Next came Red Cross swimming, and last of all, baseball.

Teams

Archery

The archers usually meet each week during the spring and fall to practice methods of shooting and develop their accuracy at different distances. They use the Columbian Round for scoring and compete with other schools.

Swimming

The swimming team is composed of advanced swimmers, who meet on a special day after school to develop their strokes and gain speed. They had several telegraphic meets, which involve schools throughout the state.

Tennis

Of the girls who go out for tennis, some are placed on the tennis team and others on the squad. The team members play in double and single matches with other schools. This year they won honors for Oak Park.

Atalanta

Marjorie Maypole, sec., Jerry Srp, pres., Barbara Zerrien, treas., Doris Lightfoot, v. pres.

Atalanta, the athletic club for girls, is open to all who are interested in physical education and who are able to meet the necessary requirements. They must earn sixty-four activity points a semester and must maintain a good scholastic record.

Members earning 600, 1200, 1600, and 2000 point awards must also pass a posture test, and meet certain health and sportsmanship standards. The spirit of this club stimulates participation in sports, and good sportsmanship.

Dolly, Bubbins, and Jerry prove that athletes have a feminine side.

Van, Dolores, and Nancy put on the finishing touches.

"Kill
the umpire!"

Nobody means it, but don't we love it!
What a way to enjoy a summer's day . . . and it's sort of in keeping with our Democratic way of life too, the right to think and say what we please.

It's a healthy privilege and one well worth keeping. Another American privilege is the right to buy what and where you please. GILMORE'S is proud to say that it served your mother and dad with integrity and will continue to do so for yours and future generations. GILMORE'S HAS
